Assists in the selection of, conducts training for, and evaluates the performance of subordinate park personnel.

Performs law enforcement functions by patrolling parks, recreational and other areas to protect parks and other natural resources; prevents vandalism, theft or area misuse; ensures the safety of the public; issues warnings and citations; makes arrests; may perform booking duties; investigates cases when needed; testifies in court.

Assists in budget preparation and administration; recommends expenditures and makes approved purchases.

Supervises and participates in collection and accounting of park use fees.

Greets and provides information to park visitors; directs them to specific areas; provides assistance to them in emergency situations; may administer first aid; may provide information to other agencies pertaining to park use, safety requirements, rules for use and points of interest.

Prepares reports and correspondence; maintains records of supplies and equipment issued to Park Rangers and other personnel.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:Knowledge of:

Basic principles and practices of supervision.

Principles and practices of natural resources conservation, park management, and general law enforcement.

Principles and practices of first aid and safety; public relations practices.

EXHIBIT A

Ability to:

Plan, organize and direct the work of others.
Enforce laws, ordinances, and regulations.
Deal effectively with the public.
Analyze situations accurately and adopt effective courses of action.
Speak and write effectively and clearly.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

Any combination equivalent to experience and education that would likely provide the required knowledge and abilities would be qualifying. A typical combination is:

Education:

Completion of high school or its equivalent supplemented by a course in Powers of Arrest in accordance with Penal Code Section 832.

Experience:

Three years of experience comparable to a Park Ranger II or other experience which involved the management, operation or protection of a park or public recreational area.

LICENSES AND CERTIFICATES

Possession of a valid Class C Driver's License issued by the California Department of Motor Vehicles.
